SOLUTIONS TO HELP MAINTAIN EMPLOYEES' WELLBEING

The Problem: Employee Wellbeing Challenges

In the UK alone, employee health is a growing concern, impacting productivity and wellbeing:

- Stress & Mental Health: Over 875,000 workers reported stress, anxiety, or depression in 2022/23.
- Absenteeism: 1 in 5 employees take time off due to stress-related issues.
- Physical Discomfort: 11% of UK workers report daily stress, with many facing physical discomfort from long hours at a desk.

The Impact: Poor mental health costs UK businesses £42–45 billion annually in lost productivity and absenteeism.

The Solution: Promote Health & Productivity with Tailored Holistic Wellbeing Services

Long hours at a desk, short breaks usually filled with personal admin tasks, lead to stress, aches, and pains, affecting both employee wellbeing and productivity. This can cause reduced focus, higher absenteeism, and impact your bottom line.

Our services—DSE Assessments, Chair Massage - Wellbeing days at work, Nutritional Therapy Workshops, and group classes & workshops — directly address these issues. Studies show that prioritising employee satisfaction and wellbeing can boost productivity by 25% (Harvard Business Review, 2022) and reduce absenteeism by 28% (Journal of Occupational Health Psychology).

By supporting your employees' health, you foster better focus, engagement, and retention, creating a more positive and productive workplace.

Why Chair Massage?

Implementing a chair massage day demonstrates your company's commitment to employee wellbeing, resulting in a more relaxed and productive workforce. Research shows workplace massage therapy reduces stress and improves job satisfaction.

A study by Day et al. (2009) found that employees receiving weekly 20-minute massages experienced reduced strain and lower blood pressure. (MetaTouch).

Offering these sessions helps create a positive company culture, reduce absenteeism, and increase productivity.

Stretch Therapy–Office Visits:

Long hours of sitting create tension in the back, neck, hips, and shoulders — the areas most responsible for fatigue, reduced focus, and stress. In a fully supported session, the body is gently guided through slow, fascia-informed stretches that release deep-held tension in ways self-stretching rarely reaches. This method resets the nervous system, improves mobility, and restores energy levels.

Why it's ideal for employees

- Relieves stiffness from prolonged sitting
- Reduces stress and supports nervous system regulation
- Improves posture, breathing, and overall mobility
- Boosts focus, clarity, and sustained productivity

Just one session leaves staff feeling lighter, clearer, and more energised — helping them return to work with greater comfort, resilience, and ease.

Stretch Therapy

Stretch Therapy

One of the most effective tools for desk-based teams. Stretch Therapy releases deep tension caused by long hours of sitting, easing the back, neck, hips, and shoulders. Through gentle, supported stretches, it resets the nervous system, improves mobility, and restores clarity and energy.

Benefits for employees: reduced stiffness, better posture, calmer nervous system, sharper focus.

A powerful reset that helps staff feel lighter, clearer, and ready to work with ease.

Offering these sessions helps create a positive company culture, reduce absenteeism, and increase productivity.

DSE Assessments & Wellbeing: The Impact

A UK study found that a four-day workweek led to 65% fewer sick days and 70% less burnout, proving that wellbeing initiatives boost productivity and workplace morale. Companies that invest in employee wellbeing create a more focused, relaxed, and engaged team.

DSE assessments help reduce stress, absenteeism, and physical discomfort caused by poor posture or repetitive strain. In the UK, musculoskeletal disorders account for 32% of work-related health issues (source: ergonix.co.uk) and stress contributes to 46% of work-related conditions (source: hse.gov.uk).

By assessing workstation setups, posture, and daily habits, you can prevent injuries, improve comfort, and boost productivity, creating a healthier, more engaged workforce.

What is Assessed in a DSE Assessment?

- The process is an individual in-depth assessment
- Workstation Setup – Ensuring desks, chairs, and equipment meet DSE regulations.
- Posture – Analyzing sitting and standing habits to prevent strain.
- Environmental Factors – Evaluating lighting, noise, and workspace conditions.
- Work Habits – Identifying risks in daily routines to improve efficiency.

DSE Assessment Prices

Including: Personalised reports | Equipment demonstration & setup.
Arrange a date that works for your workplace. | Carried out in person by our experienced assessors. | Independent product recommendations.

Individual Focused

LET'S PARTNER

Your office or Our Space

Team building – The Most Holistic Way

If you have dedicated wellbeing days or want a team-building experience with a deeper impact, let us curate the perfect mix for your team. We can bring everything to you – up to 30 employees. Or up to 8 employees can visit us in the Tileyard hub – we can put a great experience together for your team, just around the corner from you, at Tileyard Wellness Centre.

Choose from Chair Massage, Nutritional Workshops, Yoga, Pilates, even Sound Baths and/or Breathwork, or any combination that suits your team best. We'll help break through accumulated stress and restore balance.

Let's take the next step together towards a thriving, engaged team for your company!

Do Not Forget Your CSR Alignment | Your Impact

By partnering with us, a not-for-profit with a strong social mission, you're not just investing in your employees' health—you're also fostering a positive work culture and aligning with your CSR goals.

Your commitment to employee wellbeing extends beyond your office, creating a ripple effect in the wider community. This year, we're partnering with MamaSuze CIC to support refugee groups through wellbeing initiatives.

For every £2000/per year spent with us, we organise one wellbeing day retreat for 6 refugee women, ensuring that your investment in workplace wellness also uplifts those in need. Together, we create healthier teams and stronger communities.

Our Motto: Holistic Health Care for Every Journey
| Empowering Change. Transforming Lives.

Working Together

We'd love to discuss how our wellbeing services can benefit your team

Schedule a meeting with our founder, or email us to explore potential partnership opportunities and discover how we can tailor a program specifically for your needs.

To get started, we can arrange a one-off office visit, including a chair massage day, allowing your team to experience our services firsthand. After that, we can discuss a long-term partnership to support your workplace wellbeing

For Charities, CIC's or other forms of not-for profit organisation we are happy to discuss different deals and work around your budgets.

Let's take the next step together towards a thriving, engaged team for your company!

Go the Extra Mile for Your Team

As part of the Tileyard community, we want you all to feel part of the community. And as a good neighbour, we want to help you out in making your employees valued. More than that, how cool it will be to know that their employer cares for them and gives them that extra nudge to take care of them.

We're here to make supporting your team easy, impactful, and genuinely enjoyable. Let's build a healthier workplace together. 😊

Check the options we put in place for the Tileyard residents only, and if you have another idea in mind, let us know. We love bespoke packages too.

Go the Extra Mile for Your Team

Part-Funded 1-to-1 Sessions

Chip in for your team's therapy or massage sessions — half, a portion, or even more. A small contribution from you makes a big difference for them.

Achievement Rewards

Celebrate wins with wellbeing vouchers. A thoughtful, feel-good way to say “well done.”

The 10% + 10% Boost

If you cover 10% of an employee's session, we'll add another 10% on our side. That means your staff only pays 80% of the full treatment — a community-powered wellbeing win.

Membership Support

Help your team access our classes regularly or regular 1:1 therapy sessions. Whether it's 1 session a month or 3, you choose what fits your wellbeing budget and we'll tailor the best structure for you.
